Draft resolution submitted by the Chairman following informal consultations

Capital master plan

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 54/249 of 23 December 1999, 55/238 of 23 December 2000, 56/234 and 56/236 of 24 December 2001, 56/286 of 27 June 2002, section II of its resolution 57/292 of 20 December 2002, resolution 59/295 of 22 June 2005, section II of its resolution 60/248 of 23 December 2005, resolution 60/256 of 8 May 2006 and its decision 58/566 of 8 April 2004,

Having considered the second[1] and third[2] annual progress reports of the Secretary-General on the implementation of the capital master plan, the reports of the Secretary-General on viable options for ensuring sufficient parking space at United Nations Headquarters,[3] on plans for three additional conference rooms and viable solutions for allowing natural light into the rooms,[4] on cooperation with the City and State of New York related to the capital master plan,[5] on the status of possible funding arrangements for the capital master plan,[6] on a business analysis of the possibility of constructing a new permanent building on the North Lawn,[7] the note by the Secretary-General transmitting the report of the Board of Auditors on the capital master plan for the biennium ended 31 December 2003,[8] the report of the Board of Auditors for the year ended 31 December 2004,[9] the reports of the Office of Internal Oversight Services on the capital master plan for the period from August

2003 through July 2004[10] and the period from August 2004 through July 2005[11] and the related reports of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[12] as well as the oral report by the Chairman of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions;[13]

1. Reiterates its serious concern about the hazards, risks and deficiencies of the current conditions of the United Nations Headquarters Building, which endanger the safety, health and well-being of staff, visitors, tourists and delegations, including high-level delegations;

2. Takes note of the second[1] and third[2] annual progress reports of the Secretary-General on the implementation of the capital master plan, the reports of the Secretary-General on cooperation with the City and State of New York related to the capital master plan,[3] on the status of possible funding arrangements for the capital master plan[6] and on the business analysis of the possibility of constructing a new permanent building on the North Lawn;[7]

3. Decides to revert to the consideration of the reports of the Secretary-General on viable options for ensuring sufficient parking space at United Nations Headquarters,[3] on plans for three additional conference rooms and viable solutions for allowing natural light into the rooms,[4] the note by the Secretary-General transmitting the report of the Board of Auditors on the capital master plan for the biennium ended 31 December 2003[8] and the report of the Board of Auditors for the year ended 31 December 2004,[9] the reports of the Office of Internal Oversight Services on the United Nations capital master plan for the period from August 2003 through July 2004[10] and the period from August 2004 through July 2005,[11] at the main part of its sixty-first session;

4. Notes the benefits, including economic ones, accruing to host countries from the presence of the United Nations, and the costs incurred;

5. Stresses the special role of the host country Government with regard to support for United Nations Headquarters in New York;

6. Recalls the current practices of host Governments with regard to support for United Nations headquarters and United Nations bodies located in their territories;

7. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that no action is taken that would preclude any decision that the General Assembly might take on the construction of a new permanent building on the North Lawn at some future date;

8. Approves, effective 1 July 2006, the recommended strategy for the implementation of the capital master plan, strategy IV (phased approach), contained in the third annual progress report of the Secretary-General,[2] including the phasing, swing space and cost, and decides to review the updated projected costs at the main part of the sixty-first session;

9. Requests the Secretary-General to submit proposals to the General Assembly at its sixty-first session, through the Committee on Conferences, on the possible adjustment of meeting schedules, including a change in venue of meetings for the United Nations intergovernmental organs that normally meet at Headquarters for the period of the implementation of the capital master plan;

10. Stresses the need for a long-term strategy for office accommodation at Headquarters;

11. Requests that a comprehensive study on the feasibility of the proposed construction of a building on the North Lawn, including a number of other factors that have not been included in the business analysis contained in the report of the Secretary-General,[1] on security, architectural, and host city and community issues be included in the context of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2008-2009;

12. Requests the Secretary-General, considering the need to continue to explore ways to increase procurement opportunities for vendors from developing countries and countries with economies in transition, to take the provisions of its resolutions 54/14 of 29 October 1999, 55/247 of 12 April 2001 and 59/288 of 13 April 2005 on procurement reform fully into consideration in the implementation of the capital master plan;

13. Notes that the capital master plan office will provide resources to the Office of Internal Oversight Services in order to ensure an appropriate construction audit for the capital master plan, and requests the Secretary-General to report on the findings thereon in the context of the relevant reports, including the annual report of the Office of Internal Oversight Services throughout the phases of the project;

14. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that procurement processes related to the capital master plan are conducted in a transparent manner and in full compliance with relevant General Assembly resolutions;

15. Welcomes the establishment of the capital master plan website;

16. Requests the Secretary-General ensure that financial disclosure statements are filed by staff involved with the capital master plan in accordance with relevant General Assembly resolutions;

17. Recognizes that the cash payment option, based on a one-time assessment or multi-year special assessments, would be the simplest and the most cost-effective approach for meeting the cost of the capital master plan;

18. Decides to revert to the issue of the funding plan for the capital master plan, including the credit facilities or instruments referred to in paragraph 35 of the third annual progress report as well as the feasibility of a one-time upfront payment option at the main part of its sixty-first session, and in this context requests the Secretary-General to propose, inter alia, to the General Assembly, at the main part of its sixty-first session, a mechanism that would ensure that Member States that pay their assessed contributions for the capital master plan in full and on time will not bear any financial liabilities and/or other obligations derived from the possible utilization of those credit facilities or instruments;

19. Also decides to convert the existing commitment authority of 77 million United States dollars into an appropriation, with assessment on Member States in 2006 on the basis of the regular budget scale of assessment in effect for the year;

20. Requests the Secretary-General to report on the implementation of the provisions of the present resolution in the fourth annual progress report on the implementation of the capital master plan to the General Assembly at its sixty-first session.

Investing in the United Nations for a stronger Organization worldwide: detailed report

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 41/213 of 19 December 1986, 60/1 of 16 September 2005 and 60/260 of 8 May 2006,

Reaffirming the role of the General Assembly and its relevant intergovernmental and expert bodies, within their respective mandates, in planning, programming, budgeting, monitoring and evaluation,

Stressing the need for Member States to participate in the budget preparation process, from its early stages and throughout the process,

06-42062 (E) 100706

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General, entitled "Investing in the United Nations: for a stronger Organization worldwide: detailed report"[1] and the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[2]

1. Renews its appeal to Member States to demonstrate their commitment to the United Nations by, inter alia, meeting their financial obligations on time, in full and without conditions, in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations and the Financial Rules and Regulations of the United Nations;

2. Endorses the recommendations and conclusions of the Advisory Committee contained in its report,[2] subject to the provisions of the present resolution.

I. Oversight and accountability

1. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure the full operationalization of the Ethics Office, including through the expeditious filling of vacancies;

2. Emphasizes the need for strengthening oversight in the Organization, and stresses the importance of strengthened accountability in the Organization and of ensuring greater accountability of the Secretary-General to Member States, inter alia, for the effective and efficient implementation of legislative mandates and the use of human and financial resources;

3. Looks forward to considering the results of the independent external evaluation of the audit and oversight system of the United Nations, as well as other relevant reports in this regard, and to taking action on proposals contained therein on, inter alia, ensuring the full operational independence of the Office of Internal Oversight Services and strengthening the evaluation capacity of the Office at the programme and subprogramme levels, as well as any budget requirements;

4. Recalls section XIII, paragraph 4, of its resolution 60/248 of 23 December 2005, whereby it established the Independent Audit Advisory Committee, and looks forward to considering and taking action on its proposed terms of reference with a view to operationalizing it.

II. Information and communication technology

1. Decides to establish the post of Chief Information Technology Officer at the level of Assistant Secretary-General in the Office of the Secretary-General;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to rejustify the level and resource requirements for the post of Chief Information Technology Officer in the Office of the Secretary-General, in the context of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2008-2009 to be considered at its sixty-second session, taking fully into account the existing staffing structure and resources dedicated to information and communication technology (ICT) functions in the Organization;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to provide to the General Assembly, at its resumed sixty-first session, detailed information on the structure and staffing requirements of the envisaged ICT structure, as well as the lines of responsibility,

[1] A/60/846 and Add.1-7.
[2] A/60/870.

the functions of the proposed structure and its relationship with other ICT units in the Secretariat, offices away from headquarters, regional commissions, peacekeeping operations, special political missions and other field offices;

4. Decides to replace the Integrated Management Information System with a next-generation enterprise resource planning system or other comparable system;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly, at its resumed sixty-first session, the comprehensive report referred to in paragraphs 17 and 18 of the addendum on investing in information and communication technology to the above-mentioned detailed report of the Secretary-General,[3] and to respond to relevant General Assembly resolutions, including on the following matters:

(a) Substantive improvements to the ICT systems that may be required, including the systems at offices away from Headquarters, the regional commissions and peacekeeping operations;

(b) A detailed implementation plan, including on the user needs, scope, timetable, strategy and detailed resource requirements and information technology needs arising from the adoption of the International Public Sector Accounting Standards;

(c) The expected contribution of the ICT system to enhancing the effective and transparent use of the resources of the Organization;

(d) Any revisions required to the existing ICT strategy, bearing in mind requests previously made by the General Assembly in its consideration of the 2002 ICT strategy, including its resolutions 57/304 of 15 April 2003 and 56/239 of 24 December 2001;

(e) Projected resource requirements over the lifecycle of the project;

(f) A detailed explanation and concrete examples of how it is envisaged that the proposals will enhance the effectiveness of the work of the Organization and address current deficiencies;

(g) A clear definition of the terminologies and rationale for the proposals;

(h) An assessment of previous investments in information and communications technology, as well as lessons learned and expected time frames for introducing the proposed system and arrangements for the continuation of the current system during the transitional period;

6. Decides to revert to its consideration of the report of the Joint Inspection Unit on policies of United Nations system organizations towards the use of open-source software in the Secretariats[4] at its resumed sixty-first session.

III. Limited budgetary discretion

1. Recalls its resolution 59/275 of 23 December 2004, in which it set the main priorities for the Organization for the biennium 2006-2007;

2. Reaffirms the role and prerogative of Member States in setting the priorities of the Organization, as reflected in legislative decisions;

[3] A/60/846/Add.1.

[4] A/60/665.

3. Reaffirms its role in carrying out a thorough analysis and approval of human and financial resources and policies with a view to ensuring full, effective and efficient implementation of all mandated programmes and activities and the implementation of policies in this regard;

4. Emphasizes again that the resources proposed by the Secretary-General should be commensurate with all mandated programmes and activities in order to ensure their full, efficient and effective implementation;

5. Recalls paragraph 11 of its resolution 60/246 of 23 December 2005, whereby it recognized the need for limited discretion in budgetary implementation for the Secretary-General, within defined parameters to be agreed by the General Assembly along with clear accountability mechanisms to the Assembly for its use;

6. Decides to authorize the Secretary-General, on an experimental basis, a limited discretion for budgetary implementation for the bienniums 2006-2007 and 2008-2009, to enter into commitments up to 20 million United States dollars in each biennium for positions and non-posts requirements for the purpose of meeting the evolving needs of the Organization in attaining its mandated programmes and activities;

7. Further authorizes the Secretary-General to utilize the Working Capital Fund to finance the implementation of the authorization referred to in paragraph 6 above, which shall be offset by savings identified and attained, including through the efficient use and assignment of resources during the course of each biennium within the authorized appropriation level, as reported in the performance reports;

8. Decides that the authorization referred to in paragraph 6 above shall be implemented in accordance with the following principles:

(a) The experiment shall not be utilized for unforeseen and extraordinary expenses that are authorized in respect of the maintenance of peace and security;

(b) The experiment shall not imply any changes in the human resources management policies of the Organization;

(c) The proposed programme budget shall remain the principal instrument in which the Secretary-General sets out the resources and staffing requirements of the Organization, including the requirements for all reform proposals as agreed by Member States;

(d) The experiment shall in no way prevent the Secretary-General from requesting additional posts during the course of the experiment;

(e) The experiment shall not be implemented in pursuance of General Assembly resolutions calling for the implementation of decisions "within existing resources";

(f) The experiment shall not imply any changes to the provisions guiding the use of the Contingency Fund;

(g) The utilization of authorization shall be exercised with the prior concurrence of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions when the total amount utilized exceeds $6 million per biennium;

(h) The experiment shall not alter the main priorities of the Organization as agreed by the General Assembly;

(i) The utilization of the funds provided for under the experiment shall be subject to the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations;

9. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly, through the Advisory Committee, in the context of the performance reports, on the utilization of all commitments made within the context of the experiment, together with the circumstances relating thereto, as well as the impact on programme delivery and the ability to meet the evolving needs of the Organization;

10. Decides to review the experiment at its sixty-fourth session with a view to taking a final decision on its continuation, and requests the Secretary-General to submit a comprehensive report for its consideration on the implementation of the experiment, including the following aspects:

(a) The utilization of the experiment during the course of the two bienniums;

(b) Implications, if any, for the human resources management policies and the Financial Regulations and Rules;

(c) The impact on programme delivery, as well as on the priorities of the Organization as set by Member States;

(d) The criteria used by the Secretary-General to define the evolving needs of the Organization;

11. Recalls paragraph 14 of its resolution 58/270 of 23 December 2003 and paragraph 7 of its resolution 60/246, decides that the experiment will not be extended beyond the current biennium, and requests the Secretary-General to report to it at its sixty-second session on the results of the experiment and lessons learned;

12. Requests the Secretary-General to expeditiously implement paragraph 8 of its resolution 60/246 and to report thereon in the context of the first performance report;

13. Recalls its request to the Secretary-General to specifically define accountability and clear accountability mechanisms, including to the General Assembly, and to propose clear parameters for their application and the instruments for their rigorous enforcement, without exception, at all levels;

14. Recognizes that it will consider the related report of the Secretary-General referred to in paragraph 13 above at its sixty-first session with a view to taking decisions to strengthen accountability in the Organization.

IV. Financial management practices

International Public Sector Accounting Standards

1. Decides to approve the adoption by the United Nations of International Public Sector Accounting Standards;

2. Approves the requested resources to permit the Secretary-General to begin implementation of the Standards, bearing in mind paragraph 42 of the report of the Advisory Committee);[2]

Working Capital Fund

1. Recalls its resolution 60/250 of 23 December 2005;

2. Resolves that the Working Capital Fund for the biennium 2006-2007 shall be increased to $150 million effective from 1 January 2007;

3. Resolves also that Member States shall make advances to the Working Capital Fund in accordance with the scale of assessments to be adopted by the General Assembly for contributions to the regular budget for the year 2007;

4. Resolves further that there shall be set off against these advances:

(a) The surplus balance of the programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005;

(b) Cash advances paid by Member States to the Working Capital Fund for the biennium 2006-2007 in accordance with General Assembly resolution 60/250.

V. Improving reporting mechanisms: public access to United Nations documentation

Comprehensive annual report

1. Emphasizes the importance of providing the information necessary to enable Member States to make well informed decisions;

2. Reaffirms that all reports pertaining to administrative and budgetary matters are subject to the consideration of the Fifth Committee as the appropriate Main Committee of the General Assembly entrusted with responsibilities for those matters;

3. Takes note of the intention of the Secretary-General to prepare a single comprehensive annual report containing both financial and programme information, aiming at enhancing the transparency of the Organization and the accountability of the Secretariat to Member States;

4. Emphasizes that the report would be developed in the context of paragraphs 68 and 69 of the report of the Advisory Committee,[2] bearing in mind paragraph 2 above;

5. Also emphasizes that the report would be complementary in nature and would not replace the report of the Secretary-General on the work of the Organization required under Article 98 of the Charter and reports that are subject to the consideration of the Fifth Committee.

Public access

Notes the proposal of the Secretary-General on the policy for access to United Nations documentation by Member States and the public and the observations of the Advisory Committee thereon, and requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its sixty-first session, for consideration and action, a comprehensive report containing the detailed parameters of the above proposal, including information on resource requirements, financing mechanisms and the possibility of a fee structure, and also addressing the implementation of the existing mandates governing the issue of facilitating the access of Member States and the public to United Nations documentation and information materials, as contained in relevant General Assembly resolutions.

VI. Procurement

Authorizes the Secretary-General to enter into commitments up to $706,600 to strengthen the United Nations procurement system, including by enhancing internal controls and developing business seminar programmes for vendors in developing countries, pending the consideration and action by the General Assembly at its sixty-first session of the report of the Secretary-General on procurement reform.

VII. Future consideration of management reform

1. Decides to defer its consideration of the following proposals contained in the addendum on financial management practices to the above-mentioned detailed report of the Secretary-General:[5]

(a) Consolidation of peacekeeping accounts and increases in the peacekeeping reserve fund and commitment authority for peacekeeping operations (subparagraphs 112 (b) to (l)) to its second resumed sixty-first session;

(b) Establishment of a reserve fund (subparagraphs 112 (p) and (q)) within the context of the 2008-2009 regular budget;

2. Looks forward to considering proposals at its sixty-first session on:

(a) Governance, oversight and accountability;

(b) Human resources management;

(c) Procurement;

(d) Administration of justice;

3. Reaffirms its intention to continue the consideration of measures to fulfil the commitments made by Heads of State and Government in the 2005 World Summit Outcome[6] to strengthen the United Nations by ensuring the efficient and effective functioning of the Organization and a culture of accountability, transparency and integrity in the Secretariat;

4. Pledges to provide the United Nations with adequate resources, on a timely basis, to enable the Organization to implement its mandates and achieve its objectives, having regard to the priorities agreed by the General Assembly and the need to respect budget discipline.

VIII. Appropriation

1. Approves an additional appropriation under the regular budget in the amount of 4,433,100 dollars, broken down as follows:

[5] A/60/846/Add.3.

[6] Resolution 60/1.

Section	United States dollars
Section 1. Overall policymaking, direction and coordination	145 600
Section 28A. Office of the Under-Secretary-General for Management	1 860 000
Section 28B. Office of Programme Planning Budget and Accounts	1 428 900
Section 28D. Office of Central Support Services	574 600
Section 30. Jointly financed administrative activities	424 000
Total	4 433 100

2. Also approves an additional appropriation in the amount of 127,300 dollars under section 35, Staff assessment, to be offset by an equivalent amount of income under income section 1, Income from staff assessment.

1. Recalls its resolution 59/275 of 23 December 2004, in which it set the main priorities for the Organization for the biennium 2006-2007;

[3] A/60/846/Add.1.

[4] A/60/665.

2. Reaffirms the role and prerogative of Member States in setting the priorities of the Organization, as reflected in legislative decisions;

3. Reaffirms its role in carrying out a thorough analysis and approval of human and financial resources and policies with a view to ensuring full, effective and efficient implementation of all mandated programmes and activities and the implementation of policies in this regard;

4. Emphasizes again that the resources proposed by the Secretary-General should be commensurate with all mandated programmes and activities in order to ensure their full, efficient and effective implementation;

5. Recalls paragraph 11 of its resolution 60/246 of 23 December 2005, whereby it recognized the need for limited discretion in budgetary implementation for the Secretary-General, within defined parameters to be agreed by the General Assembly along with clear accountability mechanisms to the Assembly for its use;

6. Decides to authorize the Secretary-General, on an experimental basis, a limited discretion for budgetary implementation for the bienniums 2006-2007 and 2008-2009, to enter into commitments up to 20 million United States dollars in each biennium for positions and non-post requirements for the purpose of meeting the evolving needs of the Organization in attaining its mandated programmes and activities;

7. Also decides to authorize the Secretary-General to utilize the Working Capital Fund to finance the implementation of the authorization referred to in paragraph 6 above, which shall be offset by savings identified and attained, including through the efficient use and assignment of resources, during the course of each biennium within the authorized appropriation level, as reported in the performance reports;

8. Decides that the authorization referred to in paragraph 6 above shall be implemented in accordance with the following principles:

(a) The experiment shall not be utilized for unforeseen and extraordinary expenses that are authorized in respect of the maintenance of peace and security;

(b) The experiment shall not imply any changes in the human resources management policies of the Organization;

(c) The proposed programme budget shall remain the principal instrument in which the Secretary-General sets out the resources and staffing requirements of the Organization, including the requirements for all reform proposals as agreed by Member States;

(d) The experiment shall in no way prevent the Secretary-General from requesting additional posts during the course of the experiment;

(e) The experiment shall not be implemented in pursuance of General Assembly resolutions calling for the implementation of decisions "within existing resources";

(f) The experiment shall not imply any changes to the provisions guiding the use of the contingency fund;

(g) The utilization of authorization shall be exercised with the prior concurrence of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions when the total amount utilized exceeds 6 million dollars per biennium;

(h) The experiment shall not alter the main priorities of the Organization as agreed by the General Assembly;

(i) The utilization of the funds provided for under the experiment shall be subject to the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations;

9. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly, through the Advisory Committee, in the context of the performance reports, on the utilization of all commitments made within the context of the experiment, together with the circumstances relating thereto, as well as the impact on programme delivery and the ability to meet the evolving needs of the Organization;

10. Decides to review the experiment at its sixty-fourth session with a view to taking a final decision on its continuation, and requests the Secretary-General to submit a comprehensive report for its consideration on the implementation of the experiment, including the following aspects:

(a) The utilization of the experiment during the course of the two bienniums;

(b) Implications, if any, for the human resources management policies and the Financial Regulations and Rules;

(c) The impact on programme delivery, as well as on the priorities of the Organization as set by Member States;

(d) The criteria used by the Secretary-General to define the evolving needs of the Organization;

11. Recalls paragraph 14 of its resolution 58/270 of 23 December 2003 and paragraph 7 of its resolution 60/246, decides that the experiment will not be extended beyond the current biennium, and requests the Secretary-General to report thereon to the General Assembly at its sixty-second session on the results of this experiment as well as lessons learned that can be applied to the experiment referred to in paragraph 6 above;

12. Requests the Secretary-General to expeditiously implement paragraph 8 of its resolution 60/246 and to report thereon in the context of the first performance report;

13. Recalls its request to the Secretary-General to specifically define accountability as well as clear accountability mechanisms, including to the General Assembly, and to propose clear parameters for their application and the instruments for their rigorous enforcement, without exception, at all levels;

14. Recognizes that it will consider the related report of the Secretary-General referred to in paragraph 13 above at its sixty-first session with a view to taking decisions to strengthen accountability in the Organization;

IV. Financial management practices

International Public Sector Accounting Standards

1. Decides to approve the adoption by the United Nations of the International Public Sector Accounting Standards;

2. Approves the requested resources to permit the Secretary-General to begin implementation of the Standards, bearing in mind paragraph 42 of the report of the Advisory Committee;[2]

Working Capital Fund

3. Recalls its resolution 60/250 of 23 December 2005;

4. Resolves that the Working Capital Fund for the biennium 2006-2007 shall be increased to 150 million dollars effective from 1 January 2007;

5. Also resolves that Member States shall make advances to the Working Capital Fund in accordance with the scale of assessments to be adopted by the General Assembly for contributions to the regular budget for the year 2007;

6. Further resolves that there shall be set off against these advances:

(a) The surplus balance of the programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005;

(b) Cash advances paid by Member States to the Working Capital Fund for the biennium 2006-2007 in accordance with General Assembly resolution 60/250;

V. Improving reporting mechanisms: public access to United Nations documentation

Comprehensive annual report

1. Emphasizes the importance of providing the information necessary to enable Member States to make well-informed decisions;

2. Reaffirms that all reports pertaining to administrative and budgetary matters are subject to the consideration of the Fifth Committee as the appropriate Main Committee of the General Assembly entrusted with responsibilities for those matters;

3. Takes note of the intention of the Secretary-General to prepare a single comprehensive annual report containing both financial and programme information, aiming at enhancing the transparency of the Organization and the accountability of the Secretariat to Member States;

4. Emphasizes that the report would be developed in the context of paragraphs 68 and 69 of the report of the Advisory Committee,[2] bearing in mind paragraph 2 above;

5. Also emphasizes that the report would be complementary in nature and would not replace the report of the Secretary-General on the work of the Organization required under Article 98 of the Charter as well as reports that are subject to the consideration of the Fifth Committee;

Public access

6. Notes the proposal of the Secretary-General on the policy for access to United Nations documentation by Member States and the public and the observations of the Advisory Committee thereon, and requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its sixty-first session, for consideration and action, a comprehensive report containing detailed parameters of the above proposal, including information on resource requirements, financing mechanisms and the possibility of a fee structure, and also addressing the implementation of the existing mandates governing the issue of facilitating the access of Member States and the public to United Nations documentation and information materials, as contained in relevant General Assembly resolutions;

VI. Procurement

Authorizes the Secretary-General to enter into commitments of up to 706,600 dollars to strengthen the United Nations procurement system, including by enhancing internal controls and developing business seminar programmes for vendors in developing countries, pending consideration and action by the General Assembly at its sixty-first session of the report of the Secretary-General[5] on procurement reform;

VII. Future consideration of management reform

1. Decides to defer its consideration of the following proposals contained in the addendum on financial management practices to the above-mentioned detailed report of the Secretary-General:[6]

(a) Consolidation of peacekeeping accounts and increases in the peacekeeping reserve fund and commitment authority for peacekeeping operations (subparagraphs 112 (b) to (l)) to the second part of its resumed sixty-first session;

(b) Establishment of a reserve fund (subparagraphs 112 (p) and (q)) within the context of the 2008-2009 regular budget;

2. Looks forward to considering proposals at its sixty-first session on:

(a) Governance, oversight and accountability;

(b) Human resources management;

(c) Procurement;

(d) Administration of justice;

3. Reaffirms its intention to continue the consideration of measures to fulfil the commitments made by Heads of State and Government in the 2005 World Summit Outcome[7] to strengthen the United Nations by ensuring the efficient and effective functioning of the Organization and a culture of accountability, transparency and integrity in the Secretariat;

4. Pledges to provide the United Nations with adequate resources, on a timely basis, to enable the Organization to implement its mandates and achieve its
